HANDEDNESS KEY

Bats: LHH = left-handed hitter; RHH = right-handed hitter. Blank = not verified from a matching public record. Confirm player identities with the coaching staff before using handedness for matchup decisions.

WHAT THE NEW BATTING COLUMNS MEAN

ISO (Isolated Power) = SLG – AVG. It measures extra-base power beyond singles. Higher ISO generally indicates more extra-base impact; zero means no extra-base hits. BB% (Walk Rate) = BB ÷ PA × 100. It measures how often a hitter earns a walk per plate appearance.

SB* = confirmed stolen bases in the supplied records; not recorded means not verified, not necessarily zero. Blake Mitchell has one confirmed steal in game three. An earlier game has an ambiguous stolen-base field and is excluded pending confirmation. SB attempts and caught-stealing totals are not verified. Data note: AVG/SLG/OPS and ISO are computed from the three supplied game totals. OBP uses the values previously published in the original report; BB% uses recorded BB and PA. Three games are too few to treat these rates as stable.

PITCHING & STAFF USAGE | THROUGH THREE SUPPLIED GAMES

PITCHING | SORTED BY ERA

Pitcher	Throws	IP	H	R	ER	BB	HBP	SO	ERA	WHIP	K/9	BB/9
Joey White	RHP	9.1	14	10	8	5	2	7	7.71	2.04	6.75	4.82
Charles Chislett		3.0	3	5	5	4	3	1	15.00	2.33	3.00	12.00
Taylor Perrett	RHP	6.2	18	15	14	3	0	10	18.90	3.15	13.50	4.05
Henry Mcintyre		0.1	1	1	1	1	0	0	27.00	6.00	0.00	27.00

PITCHING HANDEDNESS

Throws: RHP = right-handed pitcher; LHP = left-handed pitcher. Blank = not verified. Public sources checked include Georgia Southern Athletics and Baseball-Reference.

WHAT THE NEW PITCHING COLUMNS MEAN

K/9 = strikeouts × 9 ÷ innings pitched. It measures strikeout frequency over a nine-inning equivalent. BB/9 = walks × 9 ÷ innings pitched. It measures walk frequency; lower is generally preferable. Baseball innings notation uses .1 = one out and .2 = two outs.

PITCHER USAGE | PRELIMINARY

Joey White: Rotation / bulk-innings candidate. Leads the documented staff in innings (9■); 7 K and 5 BB. Consider a scheduled start or multi-inning appearance, subject to rest and availability.

Charles Chislett: Shorter, controlled assignments while command improves: four walks and three hit batters in three innings. Prioritize strike percentage before increasing workload.

Taylor Perrett: Defined relief stint with potential for higher-leverage work after stabilization. Ten strikeouts in 6■ innings show swing-and-miss potential, but 18 hits and 14 earned runs warrant reviewing pitch location and contact quality.

Henry Mcintyre: Only one out recorded; sample is insufficient for a firm role decision. Assess recent throwing, command, availability and health before assigning innings.

Pitching rates are highly volatile at these workloads. K/9 and BB/9 complement ERA and WHIP but do not establish pitch quality or expected future performance.

POTENTIAL LINEUP | CONDITIONAL, OFFENSE-FIRST

PROPOSED BATTING ORDER

Order	Player	Rationale	Defensive fit
1	Blake Mitchell	OBP .500; three BB, two doubles; sets table	Position to confirm
2	Ben Aslett	Prior NCAA: .313 AVG / .403 OBP (77 games); current sample .111 AVG	Position to confirm
3	Joshua Hendricks	.571 AVG; HR; 1.625 OPS; professional experience	1B / C / LF history*
4	Oscar Hargreaves	.250 AVG; double; provisional RBI opportunity	Position to confirm
5	Lochlann O'Connor	.200 AVG; double and two RBI	Position to confirm
6	Joey White	.333 in three AB; only if batting/available	P / utility history*
7	Wade Mcconnon	.364 OBP despite .125 AVG	Position to confirm
8	William Kent	Triple among eight AB	Position to confirm
9	Zak Skinner	.500 OBP and 25% BB rate; second leadoff option	Position to confirm

If Joey White is pitching and not batting, Harvey Chinn is one available alternative from the supplied games; his current 0-for-7 suggests checking recent form. Angus Saggers and Lachlan Brennan also have very small samples.

POSITION & EXPERIENCE CAUTIONS

Ben Aslett hit .313/.403/.440 across 77 NCAA games at UT Martin (2017–18), supporting a trial near the top despite a slow three-game start. Joshua Hendricks has professional and ABL experience, but his Baseball-Reference aggregate batting results (.226 AVG/.580 OPS across listed levels) do not independently establish sustained success; his current hot start is the main reason for batting third. The previously reviewed player records suggest 1B, LF and C experience for a Joshua Hendricks and collegiate pitching/utility experience for Joey White. Staff should confirm that public records match the current Melbourne players and verify defensive availability and competition rules before using this as an actual starting lineup.

DATA QUALITY & INTERPRETATION

Prepared for Melbourne Baseball Club from three supplied MyGameDay game tables. This is a coaching aid, not an official league statistical release. Pitcher roles and batting order are hypotheses; defensive assignments, handedness, workload, opposition and current health need confirmation.

Experience sources: Baseball-Reference Ben Aslett (aslett000ben), Joshua Hendricks (hendri001jos). Avoid attributing same-name Blake Mitchell profiles without identity verification. Handedness sources: Ben Aslett - UT Martin Athletics / Baseball-Reference; Joshua Hendricks - Baseball-Reference; Joey White - Georgia Southern Athletics and Melbourne Baseball Club; Taylor Perrett - Baseball-Reference and Melbourne Baseball Club. Names without sufficient identity-matched evidence are left blank. No OPS+ or WAR estimates are presented because standard calculations require unavailable league and context inputs.
